

The Custodian of the Two Holy Mosques Abdullah bin Abdulaziz International Award for Translation invites nominations for 2009. The Award aims:

1. To contribute to the transfer of knowledge from and into Arabic
2. To promote translation into Arabic in the various fields of science
3. To enrich the Arab archive by publishing distinguished works of translation
4. To recognize the achievements of institutions with outstanding contributions in the field of scientific translations from and into Arabic
5. To establish standards of excellence in translation with regard to originality, scientific value, and text quality

The closing date for nominations is 15 August 2009. Further information is available at

Link: http://www.translationaward.org/e_index.php